ATS is a computer-based assessment that has been identifying the extent of giftedness in children since 2011. It assesses conceptual understanding and student skill levels at a couple of levels above the students' grade. The ATS assesses students in three core areas - English, Mathematics, and Science.

ATS offers programmes in India and UAE as well as programmes in the US through their academic partners. Here is a look at the flagship ASSET Summer Programme: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=S-oznkDqsrc>
